How exciting it was to post my last assignment away, I always feared they would get lost in the mail but they never did. Also coming home from work and finding another assignment waiting for me was such a buzz, I couldn't wait to open it. The comments and tips you receive from your tutor are always varied, positive and enlightening.

The tutorials with each assignment gives you such an insight to design, and their wealth of experience is a library reference for ever, many times I have referred to them, or just picked them up and read them again.

My family and friends were very supportive and especially my husband who was keen for me to succeed and always interested in each new assignment. I have since redesigned my friend's kitchen with her input, as it is most important that she felt involved all along the way and very happy with the concept I had drawn up, which will be put into action early this year.

I work for a large Design Retail Store with talented designers and this course has given me the confidence to know my knowledge and skills acquired throughout the course equals that of my colleagues.

Another great tool I have learned from the course is to understand not only design concepts, but developing ideas, through the business side and also marketing which is most important when going out alone.

We also have outside designers coming to our store to choose for their clients, another important factor I got from my course was that there is no right or wrong design, my personal view point does not come into it, we are there to guide and listen to choose the best solution for our client. As it is them who are either paying our place or us for our professional advice.

Fashion and colours change every season. Designs will be here for much longer. This course was perfect timing for me to design our new kitchen and choose colours throughout our new house.

Without the wealth of knowledge I have acquired I would not have had the confidence to do myself.

I would strongly recommend anyone with flair for design to do this course.

It definitely does broaden your mind and you develop skills along the way you never knew you had. Help is only a phone call away or email if required. The sheer delight when I received my diploma was amazing.

I am an older student, but I have realized Interior Design is one profession that does not discriminate in any way, so age sex or race does not stop you from being a successful Interior Designer. Even though I am from New Zealand I decided on distance learning to learn from many talented designers and writers I had read about in Design magazines. I am so pleased I did, it has opened up many opportunities for my next holiday to Australia. I thoroughly enjoyed my course.

MORE OF WHAT STUDENTS ARE SAYING

What others are saying about the “Professional Interior Design” Course means much more than anything we could possibly say ourselves. Here are some recent comments from students of this Course. Their comments are on file and available at the Interior Design Academy.

Since completing this course, I have found the knowledge and skills gained from it to be invaluable.

... Kristy Hedderman

I can proudly say that I have opened my own business, Urban Interiors On the Bay, in beautiful Hervey Bay, QLD, and had paid commission work within two weeks of doing so.

... Merryn Lance

Pursuing the Interior Design Course was an exciting, challenging and very satisfying project for me, as this has been a dream of mine for many years.

...Pamela Lovejoy

From the moment I spoke to the Course advisers by phone, and obtained a course outline I knew this was what I needed and had been searching for.

... Bernadette Chermiside

I really appreciated the time payment plan that was offered to me, as I could not have afforded to complete the course without this option. By paying off a small amount each month via credit card deductions, I was able to complete the course with as little stress as possible! Fantastic!

... Juliet Croucher

What I liked most about the course is the ease to follow the tutorials and the support that I received from any staff member of the company. All my queries were answered promptly and when I had questions specifically for my teacher he always contacted me within a reasonable time frame.

... Margit Graham

I have already been approached by members of the public to inspect and advise them with their home effects after only a few weeks of receiving my diploma.
